teachers aren't missing out.

Enhanced Results Analysis provides detailed results information for teachers. It's an easy to use, secure and free online tool that can help you and your school achieve more.

Demand has been high with 13,000 teachers already benefiting from using Enhanced Results Analysis. With their help we've continued to make improvements to benefit you.

How does Enhanced Results Analysis benefit you?

Examinations Officers

- Saves you time – will help focus target setting and action plans for the next year. It also allows teachers to analyse their own subjects
- Simplified sign up process – teachers apply through our website. You simply accept or decline their request by logging onto e-AQA
- Easy to administer – all administration is done online through e-AQA
- You're in control – you decide what access levels teachers get. Enhanced Results Analysis only, or Enhanced Results Analysis and Results.

Teachers

- Will save you time – simple and easy to use
- Gives clear, practical insights for target setting and plans – with year-on-year comparison of results you can easily identify trends and areas for improvement
- Develop better revision plans for re-sits – identify areas of weakness to focus on when teaching for re-sits
- Easily identify students who will benefit from a re-sit
 - see at a glance how close a student was to the grade boundary.

In 2009 we are continuing to improve and upgrade the service for you and teachers.

NEW!

Simplified new teacher signup and administration process

- 1 Teachers complete an online form through the AQA website.
- 2 When you logon to e-AQA, you are automatically notified of the new user request
- 3 You accept or decline the request.
- 4 Then allocate teacher's access to Enhanced Results Analysis.
 - Teachers and other staff can view Enhanced Results Analysis and/or Results from publication day
 - Exams Officers can be set up to view results earlier, from results online date, if required

NEW!

Now with more detailed analysis available

In November additional question level data was added to ERA for over one hundred components. This means that many more teachers can now obtain a detailed breakdown of how their students performed last summer and in exam series since then.

Many more of our components will have this information available by August. There is a full list published at aqa.org.uk/era to keep you up to date until then.
