Key to annotations

- † It is intended that these will be published on the AQA Website within three working days of the issue date.
- †† It is intended that these files will be published on the AQA Website within three working days of the issue date to candidates, which is up to a month later than the issue date in centres shown here.
- * Please provide information on estimated entries as early as possible. These papers are despatched early in either the autumn term or January.
- # This material will be published on the AQA Website from September 2009.
- ~ These items will be despatched to centres based on entry information collected from centres in July 2009.

Important Notice

Outgoing specifications A2 re-sit availability.

Although preliminary material is listed for all outgoing specifications for the final opportunity to re-sit A2 units in January 2010, please remember any preliminary material is only available for those units where entry information was given by centres. You were sent a copy of the entry booklet for these re-sit units with GCE results in August and this booklet should be returned to AQA by 15 September 2009.

- A. For subjects listed below, AQA needs to send out material to centres for release to teachers and/or candidates before the main entries are known. The despatch of this material will be based on the estimated entries you submitted to AQA by July 2009. If you intend to make entries for any of these subjects and require preliminary material, please make sure that you have submitted estimates for the relevant subject or component.
