

→ Visiting AQA's Harrogate office

The office is on Springfield Avenue in Harrogate, near the Harrogate International Centre.

By Road

On approaching Harrogate follow signs for the town centre and the Harrogate International Centre.

Parking

There is no parking available at the Harrogate office for visitors.

Visitors can park in the Harrogate International Centre pay and display car park, which can be reached via Kings Road and Springfield Avenue. The entrance is opposite the AQA office.

Parking is also available at the Majestic Hotel found on Springfield Avenue. This is a pay on exit car park, with payment made at the hotel reception.

Alternative parking can be found in the Jubilee pay on exit car park, which can be reached via Kings Road and Cheltenham Parade. To reach the office on foot, turn right along Kings Road towards the Harrogate International Centre. The next road on the left is Springfield Avenue.

By Rail

Trains from Leeds to Harrogate run every half-hour, the journey takes approximately 35 minutes. Trains from York to Harrogate run every hour, the journey takes approximately 30 minutes. From the station:

- Taxis: are available outside the main exit.
- On foot: walk down Station Parade past the Bus
