AQA AS Drama and Theatre Studies: Feedback on A2 conferences

These web conferences will enable you to gain a better understanding of A2 Drama and Theatre Studies, in light of the examination series this summer.

Our web conferences are online interactive sessions where you can

- key in questions for presenters
- participate in typed 'chat' sessions
- take part in polling activities.

This web conference is subject and component-specific and complements the CPD events on A-level Drama and Theatre Studies.

The presenter will focus on:

- feedback on the units examined this summer
- giving you confidence in understanding the assessment objectives
- providing strategies for improving student performance
- giving tips on good examination practice and technique.

Who are these courses for?

All teachers of A-level Drama and Theatre Studies.

Course duration

Two hours: 16.15 – 18.15

What is the fee?

£80 per delegate, including materials.

“Brilliant! I found the course really useful and easy to join. I was a bit wary as I had never done a web conference before but I would definitely do so again.”
