A-level Law Feedback on AS/A2

Web conferences

In our new web conferences, Richard Wortley (AS) and Denis Lanser (A2) give clear guidance about how to improve students' performance and the teaching strategies that really make a difference in the classroom.

There will be separate web conferences for AS and A2 units.

Our web conferences are online interactive sessions where you can

- key in questions for presenters
- participate in typed 'chat' sessions
- take part in polling activities.

This web conference is relevant for all teachers of AQA A-level Law.

The presenter will focus on:

- key knowledge and skills that candidates demonstrated well/less well in the summer 2011 examinations
- appraisal of student responses at different levels
- bridging the gap: how to improve student performance
- tips on good examination practice and technique
- Unit 3 Crime and Unit 4 Concepts, Crime and Tort will be covered in the A2 sessions.

You can share the web conference with colleagues via whiteboard at no extra cost.

Who are these courses for?

All teachers of AQA AS/A2 Law.

Course duration

Two hours: 16.15 – 18.15

What is the fee?

£80 per delegate, including materials.
