

Curriculum Managers Update

Qualification Change for 2008 Onwards

Qualification Change for 2008 Onwards

You are invited to attend a Curriculum Managers update meeting to be held in the spring term.

The meeting will brief you on AQA's response to the current period of curriculum change and will look in particular at:

- Revised GCE Specifications – to include how the issues of 'stretch and challenge' are being addressed, and arrangements for assessment in January and June
- Changes to GCSE – and an update on the role of coursework at this level
- Functional Skills developments and the role of Functional Skills in the new curriculum
- The Extended Project – both as a free standing qualification and a component part of the Diploma
- The AQA Bacc – how this new qualification fits into a two year scheme of sixth form study and its component parts
- The Diploma – an update on the AQA- City and Guilds developments for all of the lines of learning
- New AQA qualifications, such as Enterprise and Employability, Work Related Learning and the FCSE
- AQA's new Continuing Professional Development Unit and its courses to support new curriculum areas.

Who should attend

What previous Curriculum Manager delegates have said

“Really informative and right at the time that we need it.”

JH, Head of Sixth, Taunton

“So good to have this information given to us face to face. We don’t have time to read all those emails.”

AM, Vice Principal, York
