A-level Biology (7402) Chemistry (7405) and Physics (7408)

For candidates entered through our centre for A-level Biology, Chemistry and/or Physics who are not carrying forward their practical skills endorsement from a previous attempt, I confirm that:

- all candidates have had the opportunity to carry out a minimum number of the required practical activities set out in section 8.2 of each specification
- all candidates have been assessed against the Common Practical Assessment Criteria (CPAC) as detailed in section 8.4.2 of each specification
- only candidates who have met both of the following requirements have been awarded a Pass for the endorsement at the end of the course
- carried out a minimum number of practical activities, and have demonstrated the required standard across all of the CPAC criteria at least once
- been judged competent with respect to the majority/all the specific apparatus and techniques (5c) (as well as all the practical skills (5b)) set out in the subject content
- each candidate has kept a contemporaneous record of their work and the knowledge, skills and understanding that they have derived from completion of the practical work

To be completed by the head of centre
